*content warning
for murder,
mayhem,
mischievousness,
& many mistakes.

If there ever was a time to have an Honors Theatre class of 46 students, it was this year. It has taken every one of those students (and a lot of glue, duck tape, magnets, and velcro) to put this show on our stage.

When Paige Kinch asked about creating her Director's Notebook on this play, I was very hesitant/scared out of my mind. It seemed like a HUGE CHALLENGE. But she wanted to do something fun for everyone after 18 months of no traditional shows on our stage.

And as much as it pains me to admit it, Paige was right. This show, for all the times it has been complicated and frustrating, for all the ways it has gone wrong in not the right ways, ultimately it has been a lot of fun to attempt the impossible with this incredible group of students.

The Honors class has shown off their strengths and they have learned new skills. They have all played their parts well to make this happen. There were no instructions on creating this set or how to do all the crazy "wrong" things, and it was an adventure into the unknown with some very creative students. We failed over and over again, and we used a lot of superglue. My daily shopping lists looked like I was trying to hide a couple of bodies (which I guess we were, since this is a murder mystery).

Everything on this stage is brought to you by the tenacity of 46 Honors Theatre Students and by their fabulous & fearless director, Paige Kinch. Give Paigey K. a script, some brave actors willing to be crushed & bruised by set pieces, a backstage crew of committed & slightly crazed creatives, and she will deliver an evening that is full of laughter plus a few curse words, which is pretty much a reflection of everything Paige does in her life.

I hope you enjoy this evening of live theatre. Because even when it all goes wrong, it is still an act of hope and trust and a whole lot of superglue. Thank you for being here and supporting Leon Theatre.

The Cornley Polytechnic Drama Society presents

The Murder at Haversham Manor

by Susie H. K. Brideswell

You all know the classic murder mystery story. There has been an untimely death at a country manor, everyone is a suspect, and an inspector is set on the case to find who the culprit is. However, when this play is performed by the accident-prone thespians of The Cornley Drama Society, everything that can go wrong...does! The actors and crew battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences! Over the course of an hour, expect a plethora of disasters from missed lines to falling props. Do we ever find out who murdered Charles Haversham? You'll have to see for yourself!

Liam Bennett (Jonathan/Charles Haversham) is a Leon High School senior and alleged cool guy. Standing as the current Leon high school Mayor, Liam had very humble beginnings. Starting out with the Bardlings company, he portrayed great characters like Macbeth, Hortensio, and (his Emmy winning role) Wall. Liam is often seen doing a wide variety of classic Leon activities such as: filling the band room with serpents, shaking his fist angrily at god, and "just straight up clowning." Such riveting activities has led Liam into the role of Leon High School Mayor where he has led many projects to help improve the Leon school life. One such project being the soon inclusion of "chimp hour" to the end of each and every day. Fun Fact: Liam won his mayorship in a landslide 100% voting rate! While some say that is due to him running unopposed, it's due to his sheer greatness as a leader and winning personality. (Liam always brings something hilarious and unexpected to every performance whether he is dead or alive. I can't wait to see him light up and crawl off the Leon Stage.)

Parker Bevis is a senior at Leon High School, and this is his fourth year in Leon Theatre. He has previously played Zazu in Holy Comforter's production of The Lion King Jr. He is a member of Rho Kappa Honors Society, National English Honors Society, National Science Honors Society, Interact Club, and the Leon High School tennis team. In his free time, he likes to go to the beach, spend time with his dog, and eat Chick-Fil-A. (Parker is so steady and dependable. He always does his best and is someone I can count on to do things well. He made sure all these bios were correct and that was no small task.)

Micah Black is a junior at Leon High School who is a passionate, clever individual. He plays for Leon's Varsity Football team, and likes to carry his dedication for the team over into Leon Theatre. Micah was apart of the backstage crew for Raa Middle School's production of Aladdin. He is a part of the Special Effects Crew for Leon's production of The One-Act Play That Goes Wrong. Micah is super excited to see the play fully develop and his special effects come to life. He loves making people laugh, having fun with his classmates, and helping others. (Micah is energetic and exciting student and performer. He is always eager to be a part of the team and do whatever he needs to do to make things come together well.)

Natalie Bowen is a sophomore at Leon High School. She is involved in orchestra, theater, and chorus. She has played Small Alice in Alice in Wonderland Jr, and Teen Fiona and Peter Pan in Shrek Jr. Natalie enjoys reading and playing the cello. She has been ranked 3rd best at All-district, an annual orchestra event. Natalie can vibrate her eyes, clover-leaf her tongue, and her grandfather, Tommy Wright, wrote the FSU Fight Song. (Natalie is the kindest and hardest worker human being. She learned sound technology LIKE A BOSS for this production.)

Ethan Canto is a junior at Leon High School. He has starred in several productions, including We Are America, Its a Small World, Pirates and Frozen. Ethan enjoys participating in his boy scout troop, soccer, and watching little children cry. Fun fact: Ethan can cook one-minute-rice in 58 seconds, has over 1450 hours in Sea of Thieves, can eat 2800 calories worth of PopTarts in an hour, and loves to torture people with his presence on the daily. (Ethan can do anything. We really relied on his great ideas and energy to get this show wrong in all the right ways.)

Emma Davis is a sophomore at Leon High School and is part of the costume team. They usually go by the nickname Edward or Eddie in theatre class and Ed to their closest friends, but they also go by Emma. They have played an orphan in Brundibar and auditioned for Thoroughly Modern Millie before the pandemic hit in 2020. At Leon, other than theatre, Eddie is in the MCJROTC program and on the rifle team. They enjoy music, art, and comedy. Their favorite comedians are George Carlin and Robin Williams; their favorite band is Led Zeppelin and their favorite song is Copacabana. (Edward is so dependable and steady. They are always doing exactly what we needed them to do and made sure everything was done well.)

Saliyah Davis, is such a wonderful student. She's currently in the 11th grade but is still trying to figure out what she wants to do for the rest of this year. She's currently enrolled into FLVS taking extra classes to add on more credits so she could graduate early. Saliyah is such a shy person so this is her first play at Leon. She makes sure to always stay on top of her work and help others out when necessary. She loves to be around family and friends just having a good time and a good vibe, she likes to travel, and to try all kinds of new places to eat at. A fun fact about Saliyah is that she is very terrified of dogs ever since she got chased by one, and when she was living in Mississippi for 3-4 years, she did activities such as dance, softball, cheer, and track. (Saliyah is a quiet but wonderful student. She is always on top of her work and anything we asked her to do for the play was accomplished quickly.)

Mia Dewolf is a junior at Leon High School. They were involved in Y.A.T for almost seven years before retiring. Mia loves to sew, paint, read, and sleep. Fun fact: Mia's favorite show is Buffy the Vampire Slayer and they have a pet pig. (Mia was an amazing seamstress for our show! Plus they know how to find all the best deals on fabric and may be a slight fabric hoarder. Mia also works the backstage like a boss.)

Eva Diamond-Jones is a senior at Leon High School and current Assistant Director of The One- Act Play That Goes Wrong. Eva has participated in many productions with Young Actors Theatre including as Miss. Lynch in Grease and Assistant Director of Little Shop of Horrors. She is currently cast as Aunt Em in the Young Actors Production of The Wizard Oz. Eva is also a member of Leon High School Thespians and Rho Kappa Honors Society. Outside of School, Eva is an Extern at the Grove Museum and works at Bada Bean on the weekends. (Eva could run several major corporations, at one time. She is always exactly what we need and works so hard to make everything go right! Always calm, cool, and collegial on and off stage.)

Kimmie Dicks is a junior at Leon High School, and is a part of the special effects crew for The One Act Play That Goes Wrong. This is her third year being involved with the Leon theatre program with Mrs. Marshall, but she's been involved in performing arts since middle school, and was involved with Young Actors Theatre in the past. She's been involved with a few shows with Young Actors Theatre, like Shrek the Musical and Alice in Wonderland. Outside of the Leon Theatre program, she enjoys spending time with her friends and her family and traveling as much as she can. (Kimmie has an amazing attitude and keeps us laughing even on the difficult days.)

JP Evans is the Lighting Designer, Programmer, and Operator for this production of The One-Act Play that Goes Wrong. JP is in the 11th grade at Leon High School and enjoys participating in Capital Singers, Pierian National Honor Society, and Thespians. Outside of Leon, JP is heavily involved with Young Actors Theatre where he has been a company member for seven years. His previous lighting experience includes overseeing all lighting aspects for Young Actors Theatre's production of Mamma Mia, as well as maneuvering the spotlight for numerous productions. In addition to his role in this production, Evans is currently cast in Young Actors Theatre's production of The Wizard of Oz as the Cowardly Lion. (J.P. really lights up our world, literally and metaphorically. This is his first show with us and he is brilliant! Shine on, J.P.)

Courtney Ford has been involved in theatre ever since fourth grade, mostly on stage and sometimes through tech theatre. Courtney is now in the 11th grade and theatre is still a big part of her life. Outside of theatre, she loves associating herself with or through music in some way whether through guitar, dancing, singing or composition, you name it! Besides Thespians, Courtney is also involved in leadership for the Black Student Union (treasurer) and Eco Club (vice president). Fun fact: Courtney adores fashion! She loves to show off her amazing style thorough clothing! (Courtney keeps us all on track and in style. She is an amazing human and works so well at all the things she is a part of at Leon.)

Piper Greisl (Sandra/Florence Colleymoore) is a senior at Leon High School and is thrilled to be taking part in this year's one act. Piper is a member of Thespian Troupe 1429, as well as Leon's chapters of the Pierian National Honors Society and the National English Honors Society. Some of her favorite past roles include Winifred Banks (Mary Poppins Jr., QMT), Admetus (Cats, QMT), Young Cosmo (Singin' in the Rain, Theatre Tallahassee), Bulba (Frozen, Jr., QMT), Vanessa/Ursariel (The Little Mermaid, QMT), and Featured Romanov Dancer (Anastasia, Leon). Later this November, Piper will be playing Almira Gulch/the Wicked Witch of the West in The Wizard of Oz at Young Actors Theatre. Piper would like to thank everyone who made this show possible, especially Paige, Eva, Mills, and Mrs. Marshall. (Piper is ready for anything on stage. Even being dragged through a window. She is so amazing at any role. And has the best work ethic in class and on stage. However I do believe Piper/Link in bio owes me a contract.)

Hailey Harding is a very hard-working student. She balances work and school wonderfully, along with her social life. She is in eleventh grade and has been in theatre her entire high school career. Hailey enjoys being at work making overpriced coffees and teas at Starbucks, and hanging out with her friends doing random activities like thrifting or having dance parties in the Leon parking lot at midnight. She has been playing tennis for 7 years and enjoys singing in her free-time. Fun fact- Nyla can recite all the words to Hairspray's "Mama Imma Big Girl Now". (Nyla tackles every project with joy and maximum effort. She encourages everyone with her infectious energy and spirit.)

He likes to write, and it differs from stories, poems or even just thoughts of the day; he also likes to play video games, enjoy time with friends, and even have deep conversations on life and the aspects of life. (Braeden eagerly tackled sound design work for the first time. He is always eager to do whatever he can to make everything go smoothly.)

Paige Kinch is a senior at Leon High School she has been doing community theatre since she could spell her name. Riane Williams has a special personality. She prides herself in being eccentric in every way. Riane is a sophomore who has had some previous theatre experiences, including playing the evil stepmother in Cinderella, an ensemble in Mulan, and a student in a Districts play. She has gone to Districts a total of three times. She has also been inducted into Jr. Thespians, has taken four years of theatre classes, and has directed a student short film. Riane is also a part of Leon Varsity Volleyball and has played for Leon for two years. Other activities she enjoys are reading, painting, drawing, pottery, writing, and filming. An interesting fact about Riane is that she has helped fly a plane before. (Riane is so multi talented and does a million things, but she does them all so well! She has created some amazing short films also.)

Devon Wilson is relatively reserved. He used to be involved in Thespians in middle school, he sang in musical theatre, and he's a decent actor. After middle school, he went on to participate in a Shakespearian theatre group called the Bardlings and was part of multiple shows and roles. During his career as a Bardling, he also re-wrote some scenes from various Shakespearian plays. He enjoys woodworking, metalworking, and playing video games. In this play The One-Act Play That Goes Wrong he works with the Special Effects and worked to help build different effects for the play such as how the play is supposed to go wrong. (Devon was amazing at coming up with ideas of how to tackle various challenges backstage. His height was also super helpful for us as we attached things to the set.)
